

CONSTITUTION OF THE STUDENT LEAGUE FOR BLACK CULTURE OF FURMAN UNIVERSITY

PREAMBLE

We, the members of the Student League for Black Culture of Furman University, recognizing the need for educating students and persons in this community concerning Black culture and awareness, do hereby establish and ordain this constitution.

Article I. Name

This organization shall be called the Student League for Black Culture, hereafter SLBC:

Article II. Purpose

Section I. To encourage Black awareness through the promotion of Black culture; this includes bringing to campus individuals and groups with significant contributions to the enhancement of constructive Black culture.

Section II. To promote the social and cultural interaction of Black students at Furman university through the co-sponsorship of social activities.

Section III. To establish an effective relationship between the Black communities of Greenville and surrounding areas, Black Alumni, and the Black student community of Furman University.

Section IV. To initiate all legitimate and feasible actions that will improve the general well-being of the Black community at Furman University.

Section V. To promote and encourage meaningful connections, sensitivity, and harmony within the Black community at Furman University.

Article III. Membership

Section I. Any student who supports the purpose of SLBC and completes a membership form shall be considered a member.

Section II. The status of an honorary member may be granted to a non-student through the initiative of the Executive Committee. This action must be approved by two-thirds of the members of SLBC. An honorary member will be entitled to only those privileges that have been approved by the Executive Committee.

Section III. Members must uphold Furman University's Student Code of Conduct.

Cancellation of membership must be approved by a two-thirds majority of the Executive Committee. A student may appeal his dismissal to the Executive Committee. Dismissed members are eligible to reapply after two academic terms.

Article IV. Officers

Section I. The President of SLBC shall:

- A. Preside over all meetings
- B. Represent the organization at all functions where representation is deemed necessary
- C. Introduce all guest speakers for CLPs
- D. Act as chairperson of the Executive Committee
- E. Act as Ex-officio member of all other committees
- F. Have the power to create all ad hoc committees
- G. Begin each school year with a first meeting statement outlining goals and priorities of the year
- H. Will inform the SLBC Advisor of any prolonged absences from the campus
- I. Have the power to delegate assignments to Executive Committee members for the fulfillment of the organizational goals
- J. Appoint members to serve in various positions as needed
- K. Present ideas and recommendations for programming
- L. Establish effective relationships with leaders of organizations within Student Diversity Council

Section II. The Vice President of SLBC shall:

- A. Act in full capacity of the President in case of their absence and succeed the president in case of a vacancy.
 - a. In the absence of the Vice President, the Secretary would take their place.
- B. Serve on the Executive Committee.
- C. Be a voting member of SLBC.
- D. Inform the President of long absences (exceeding three days).
- E. Present ideas and recommendations for programming.
- F. Organize all of the general member meetings during the school year.
- G. Coordinate co-sponsorships with other organizations on campus.

Section III. The Secretary shall:

- A. Record the minutes of the meetings and distribute them via email within 48 hours.
- B. Inform members of future events and meetings
- C. Keep records of membership attendance
- D. Serve on the Executive Committee
- E. Be a voting member of SLBC
- F. Be responsible for organizational mailings and maintenance of the SLBC database
- G. Keep the SLBC Sync Din portal updated
- I. Be in charge of the organization's master schedule of activities and room reservations

Section IV. The Treasurer shall:

- 1. Handle all financial transactions and requests

2. Keep records of all income and expenditures
3. Submit a monthly financial report to the president and vice president
4. Obtain the approval of the Executive Committee before writing all checks more than $50.00, not including budget items
5. Consult Advisor on all checks less than $50.00, not including budget items
6. Serve on the Executive Committee
7. Be a voting member of SLBC
8. Assist in determining the feasibility of proposed activities by informing the Executive Committee of the organization's financial status
9. Shall not discuss the financial status of the organization with any non-member without prior approval from the Executive Committee

Section V. Marketing Director

1. Serve on the Executive Committee
2. Be a voting member of SLBC
3. Be an active member of SLBC
4. Oversee the social media platforms for SLBC
5. Act as a bridge between SLBC and the campus-wide Black community at Furman.
6. Create ways to promote the existing purpose of SLBC through social media posts, posters and other forms of marketing.
7. Track and analyze marketing performance metrics by
8. Capture images during SLBC meetings/events and post on social media pages to further enhance the understanding of the organization.
9. Work collaboratively with the Secretary to compartmentalize the meeting notes to share on social media

Article V. Election of Officers

Section I. Officers will be nominated by members of SLBC by the end of February. All students running for an executive position in SLBC are required to do a speech in front of the general body. The nominations are done by active members meaning that they are highly engaged in the organization with their participation and ideas. Nominees will be voted on by active members of SLBC and win by plurality. In the event of a tie, there will be 45 seconds for both nominees to add on to their reasoning as to why they should be elected. After their comments, the members will re-vote. Should there be another tie, the President will utilize a random name generator to determine who is elected.

Article VI. Recall of Office

Section I. Any officer will be removed from leadership upon failure to:

1. Fulfill their duties
2. Not attend three meetings without prior approval from the SLBC Advisor or overall approval from the executive council
3. Assist with event preparation twice without the approval of the Executive Committee

4. Rightfully represent the organization while abiding by University Policies.
5. Failure to remain an enrolled student at Furman University.

Article VII. SLBC Advisor

Section I. The SLBC Advisor of SLBC shall:

1. Help with facilitating the organization
2. Assist with the planning of events
3. Provide the organization with information, appropriate guidance, and counseling
4. Have regular one-on-one meetings with the President, typically on a weekly basis

Article VIII. Colors

Section I. The official colors of SLBC are Red, Black, and Green.

1. Red symbolizes a tribute to all who shed their blood trying to make a positive difference in the lives of Black people everywhere.
2. Black symbolizes the pride and respect in the Black heritage and ancestry while maintaining love and respect for all of God's creation.
3. Green symbolizes the land that we love where we will strive to make justice and equality available to all human beings.

Article IX. Amendments

Section I. Amendments to the Constitution

1. May be proposed by a member of the Executive Committee
2. May be proposed by the general membership to an executive member
3. Must be approved by two-thirds majority vote of the Executive Committee

Article X. Ratification

Section I. Ratification

1. This document shall be ratified by a simple two-thirds majority vote of the present membership.
2. This document will become effective at such time of ratification by the Student Diversity Council and the SLBC advisor.